

Good morning,

Pupils who are turning 5 years old will soon be able to get their National Entitlement Card and hop on the bus for free. Free bus travel helps children and their families in lots of different ways. This is more than just a free journey - it's a passport to new experiences, family adventures, and growing confidence as children learn how to travel safely on the bus..

Free bus travel - let the adventures begin!

Is your child turning five? You can apply for their card with free bus travel up to two weeks before their fifth birthday. Whether it's the school run, a trip to the park, or a weekend adventure, free bus travel makes it easier and more affordable to get around. Find out more on the Young Persons' \(Under 22s\) Free Bus Travel.

You can also find out more about free bus travel for people with disabilities on the Transport Scotland website.
